

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED INFECTIONS PATHFINDER – Planning 10

Consumer Health Complete (Database) Part of the EBSCO Database bundle (langley/langley35)

<http://www.wgss.ca/Library> (Click here for online resources, WGSS, Home page, choose Langley District Databases on left, scroll down through EBSCO list to select database). Enter name of STI into the Find box. Then select Fact Sheets and Pamphlets to start. In order to cite information, press save (bottom), then select Citation Format (MLA) and Save. Copy and paste citation into your document.

Health Canada

<http://www.hc-sc.gc.ca/hc-ps/dc-ma/sti-its-eng.php>

Canadian Government website that has information STIs, links to Health Canada, the Public Health Agency of Canada and resources and statistics on STIs in Canada.

Public Health Agency of Canada

<http://www.phac-aspc.gc.ca/std-mts/faq-eng.php>

Public Health Agency of Canada site on STIs, which contains disease facts and information, contraceptive information, and links to various provincial STI information sites.

BC Centre for Disease Control

<http://www.bccdc.ca/dis-cond/a-z/s/SexuallyTransmittedInfections/default.htm>

BC provincial information on STIs that contains disease overviews, clinics and programs, educational material, and statistics.

In the Know

<http://intheknowpeel.ca/>

Ontario based site for sexually transmitted infections (STIs) including HIV/AIDS, birth control and pregnancy. Also has an “Ask an Expert” section where questions will be answered anonymously.

Sexuality and U

<http://www.sexualityandu.ca/stis-stds>

Wealth of information on STIs, birth control and sexual health. Also includes teacher resources: free pdf and PowerPoint slide presentations as a resource for teaching sexual health in the classroom.

Options for Sexual Health

<https://www.optionsforsexualhealth.org/sexual-health/sexually-transmitted-infections>

BC based website that is a Sexual Health Services and Support with information on STIs, sexual health as well as birth control and pregnancy. Also has information on educators, clinics and a help line.