WGSS REFERENCE COLLECTION SHEET (MLA 8TH Ed.)

BOOKS See examples under boxes for more tips.　　　Name: _____

Author. (Last name first)	Title. (Capitalize important words in the title.)	Publisher,　(* See below)	Date. (Find ©)

Reynoldson, Fiona. Key Battles of World War II. Heinemann, 2011.　　Note: More than three authors: Smith, John, et al.
Baines, John, and Barbara Jones. This Fragile Earth. Simon, 2014.　　*Omit business words like Company, Incorporated, Limited.

ONLINE DATABASES　　Check all information details as some premade database citations may be missing elements.

Tip: It's easy to copy/paste the exact database citation into a Word document (which you will title Works Cited).

Author. (If available, last name first)	"Article Title."	Title of Reference Work. (Include details from database citation: name of title/volume, editor, publisher, year, pages, etc.)	Container. (The name of the database)	Both the URL and the Accessed Date: Day, Month, Year, are optional, but recommended.

Harris, Clay. "Volcano." The Gale Encyclopedia of Science, edited by K. Lee Lerner, and Brenda Wilmoth Lerner, 5th ed., Gale, 2014.
Science In Context, http://link.galegroup.com/apps/doc/CV2644032364/SCIC?u=35sbo&sid=SCIC&xid=68d4dc59. Accessed 22 May 2019.

WEBPAGES   Look around the perimeter of the webpage for the information you need to fill in the boxes below.
Tip: Check Home, About Us page. Some websites will have citations available. You can also copy/paste the exact website URL into a Word document with your notes so you can easily revisit this source or later use a citation maker.

Author. (Last name first)	"Title of Webpage Article." (If different also add the Title of Overall Website.)	Website publisher or sponsor if available (i.e. company, university)	Both the URL and the Accessed Date: Day, Month, Year, are optional, but recommended.

Johnston, Hugh. "Komagata Maru". The Canadian Encyclopedia, 10 September 2018, Historica Canada.
	https://www.thecanadianencyclopedia.ca/en/article/komagata-maru. Accessed 24 May 2019.

IMAGES If the image was in a book, be sure to note the page number for the image under location.
When creating content, use only copyright free images. Tip: Google images > Tools >Usage Rights > Copyright free options.

Author/Artist/Creator (Last name first)	Title. (If not available, create a generic title i.e Ear Diagram)	Publication Date	Location. (Where did you find this?)

Not sure how to change the URLs of your online web resources into correct citation form?
Visit: OSLIS MLA Citation Maker: http://secondary.oslis.org/cite-sources/mla-secondary-citation
Select the Source Type from the right hand menu, fill in all the boxes you can – paying attention to the drop-down choices (see arrows). Then click on creation citation below
(in green at the bottom) to make your MLA8th citation.
All citations should be listed in a document titled Works Cited.

The title Works Cited is centered on the page. Arrange your references in ABC order, use hanging indents, and double-space.